HAMPTON SCHOOL

(HMC 1312 boys 11-18, 385 in Sixth Form)

TEACHER OF PSYCHOLOGY
Part-Time
To start September 2019

This is an excellent opportunity for either a newly qualified or experienced part-time Teacher of Psychology to join a forward thinking and highly successful department in an outstanding School. Teaching up to and including A2 and Oxbridge level you will be committed to passing on your love and expertise of the subject as well as promoting and maintaining the high standards of achievement of the pupils and contributing to the development of outstanding teaching practice across the department.

Hampton is one of the country's foremost independent schools and has an extensive and thriving co-curricular programme to which a contribution to the wider life of the school is expected. The School is also rated 'exceptional' by the Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) for pupils' achievements and learning.

The post would suit a well-qualified graduate or an experienced teacher. Hampton has its own generous salary scale to attract high calibre candidates and NQTs are provided with an appropriate programme of induction leading to QTS, valid across both sectors.

Accommodation may also be available.

The closing date for applications is Monday 18 March 2019 at 9am.

The School reserves the right to withdraw the role and to commence or complete the recruitment process at any time prior to the closing date.

Further details of the post and an application form may be obtained from the Hampton School website www.hamptonschool.org.uk. Application forms to be sent to recruitment@hamptonschool.org.uk.

Hampton School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and the successful applicant will be subject to child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and an enhanced disclosure through the DBS. Hampton School is an Equal Opportunities employer. Registered Charity No 1120005. Company No 06264434.
